Discuss the Principle of Learning

Love and Teach One Another

Read the principle of learning for this lesson aloud.

I can learn from the Spirit as I love, teach, and learn with others.

In EnglishConnect, we know that God is the true teacher, and He teaches us through His Spirit. The Spirit brings feelings of joy, peace, and love. The Spirit helps us understand truth and can increase our capacity to learn. One way that we invite the Spirit to be with us is by loving, teaching, and learning together.

Love and Teach One Another

The prophet Alma from the Book of Mormon was responsible for teaching the people. He divided the people into groups and chose a leader for each group. Alma taught them:

“The preacher was no better than the hearer, neither was the teacher any better than the learner; and thus they were all equal” (Alma 1:26).

Discuss the Principle of Learning

Love and Teach One Another

In EnglishConnect, we believe that teachers and learners are equally important. We are all teachers and learners. We respect and listen to each other. We teach each other. We love and value each other. We can congratulate others when they succeed and encourage them when they make mistakes. We can also find ways to support each other and plan times to practice with each other during the week. God will bless us with His Spirit as we learn to love and teach each other.

Discuss the questions.

- What can you do to love and support those who have different English language abilities?
- How can the learning experience in EnglishConnect be different from classes you have had before?
