

Self-Reliance Group Parental Permission Form

Agreement

Your child, _____, has requested your permission to participate in the _____ Self-Reliance course. Self-reliance courses are affiliated with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, a worldwide Christian church with headquarters in Salt Lake City (the "Church"). The program is designed to increase self-reliance through in-person or online groups with additional personal course work.

Group instruction is provided by volunteers affiliated with the Church. Although lessons are intended to improve self-reliance, they will also contain religious content.

There is no fee for participation, but there may be a minimal fee for course materials. Self-reliance courses do not carry any type of accreditation, degree, or unit by any educational or training program or training institution.

Your child may only participate in a self-reliance course with your express consent. In granting your consent, you confirm that:

- 1. You are the parent or legal guardian of the minor named above.
- 2. You have read the information herein and authorize your child to participate in the specified self-reliance group course.
